

ENGLISH TRANSLATION

1. Contraception is the main victory for women in the second half of the 20th century.
2. To have a child doesn't automatically mean giving up work.
3. It is illegal to fire a woman during her pregnancy, her maternity leave or during the month that follows her return to work.
4. Nowadays, it is more and more frequent for women to have a similar income to the one of their partners.
5. It is rare for women not to look for work at the end of their studies.
6. Men in relationships spend a lot less time doing household tasks than women.
7. For women, having a paid job allows them to thrive and achieve independence
8. Despite recent progress, female presence is limited in positions of responsibility.
9. Generally, men's wages remain higher than women's by 25%. The difference is still 12% for the same job.